To Whom it May Concern:

Regarding Product Name and Number: 300-633
Edge - Ease® X-Ray Comfort Cushion - Blue

OSHA's Hazard Communication Standard states that a Safety Data Sheet (SDS) must be maintained for each hazardous chemical used in the workplace. It also states that the manufacturer or importer of a product is required to provide an SDS for all substances and mixtures which meet OSHA's definition of a physical or health hazard.

According to the manufacturer / importer of the above mentioned product / substance is contains nothing hazardous and therefore has not issued an SDS regarding the same.
